THE FIRST RYDER CUP TEAM player to arrive for next week's tournament was American Team Captain Sam Snead, pictured above doing some practice putting at the Eldorado Country Club. The teams, which are arriving today, will start their local play Monday with the Pro-Am. On Nov. 4, the Celebrity play will be held, and on Nov. 6 and 7 the actual Ryder Cup play. (Desert Sun Photo)

AIR TURBULENCE GROUNDS TEAM

Bad air turbulence over the pass area, and extending as far northwest as Los Angeles, grounded the British Ryder Cup Team at Los Angeles International Airport last night, and forced them to utilize a special charter bus to continue their trip to the Indian Wells Hotel.

With Ryder Cup officials, press, and officials of Palm Springs and Palm Desert on hand at the Palm Springs Airport awaiting the special chartered United Airlines plane, it was 8 p.m. before word was received that the plane was grounded.

ROBERT HUDSON, backer of the Ryder Cup team play, called Los Angeles to talk with group representatives there. He was told that the Britishers "had no desire to board the plane again, saying that the air had been 'very rough.'"

Ryder Cup team members, along with members of the foreign press, and British PGA officials arrived here about midnight last night.

They had breakfast at Eldorado Country Club this morning, and although the sky is cloudy, many are planning to get in practice rounds today.

Laos' King Vong Succumbs Today

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—King Sisavang Vong of Laos died in his Luang Prabang palace Thursday at the age of 74, ending a 55-year reign, the longest in modern times.

Crown Prince Savang Vatthana, 32, took over in name as well as fact the duties of ruling this tiny kingdom which was once part of French Indochina.

SAVANG HAS BEEN in charge of this constitutional monarchy as regent since last month, when Sisavang's chronic illness worsened. But he has handled royal affairs for years, and Laos is one of the few monarchies left in the world where a king has a direct role in government.

Sisavang died, apparently of complications arising from his long bouts with rheumatism, a neck tumor, and a bad heart, at a time when his kingdom was fighting a running war with rebels who are aided by the Communists. He left his son well-trained in government.

IT WAS SAVANG, for example, who stepped into national politics last year to nominate Phoui Sa-

American team members started arriving Wednesday, and all are expected to be here by tonight.

Some of the American Ryder Cup professionals yesterday completed the $75,000 Sahara (Las Vegas) Pro-Am, and are leaving there today for Eldorado Country Club.

Avalanche Obliterates Mexican West Coast Town, 800 Feared Dead

7 Children Killed Today In Home Fire

Only Baby Sitter Rescued; Mothers Located in Tavern

OTTUMWA, Iowa (UPI)—Seven children ranging in age from one to nine perished today when fire swept through a small home while their mothers were at a tavern. Six of the children were members of one family.

A fireman risked his life to rescue the only survivor, Sharon Dooley, 13, a babysitter. She was burned over most of her body and reported in "very critical" condition at a local hospital.

FIREMAN ROBERT Knox, 44, was credited with saving the baby-sitter. Knox crawled into the flaming two-room house and felt around the floor, trying to see the children through the dense smoke billowing through the home.

"I found the bodies of the seven children first in a corner of the kitchen," Knox said. "They were huddled together for protection against the searing heat and choking smoke."

"I SAW THEY were dead. I didn't get a chance to examine the baby-sitter who was nearby because the other firemen outside called to me to come out because of the danger."

"When I got outside, it kept working on me—the fact that I hadn't got a chance to examine her thoroughly. The longer I stood out there the more I thought about it."

"I don't know why, but I decided to go back inside and see if she was alive."

"I CRAWLED inside. When I got near her, I saw her body move."

Knox picked up the girl and with the aid of another fireman, Albert Ruble, got her to safety. The other children died of burns and suffocation.

First on the scene were two policemen answering an alarm turned in by Mrs. Thomas Anderson, grandmother of six of the children, who lived across the street. Policemen were unable to enter the house because of the intense heat.

SIX OF THE children belonged to Mrs. Patricia Van Horn. They were Karen Rae, 9; Sharon Kay, 7; Patty Sue, 6; Le Roy, 4; Debra, 2, and Cynthia, 1.

The other victim was Carla Campbell, 4, the daughter of Carl and Lorraine Campbell, also of Ottumwa.

High Winds Usher in Fall Season

Sand Warnings Posted; Trace Of Rain Recorded

High winds and intermittent rains pummeled the resort area last night in the first chilling onslaught of the fall season.

Wind traveling as high as 40 miles an hour raced across the desert from Desert Hot Springs to Indio, churning up frequent sand storms and causing widespread minor damage.

HEAVY THUNDER also rocked the region last night, but Palm Springs fire department weather observers recorded only a trace of rain for the night time hours. A light drizzle fell on Palm Springs and the Coachella Valley this morning.

The California Highway Patrol posted sandstorm warning signs on Highway 99 yesterday afternoon, urging motorists to take alternate routes through the valley as sand reduced visibility to a few hundred feet.

Fast moving wind blasted down highway billboards, television antennas and trees along its path. One barbershop window in Desert Hot Springs was shattered when the wind lifted a sheet of metal from the cargo of a passing truck and hurled it into the shop.

BY MORNING today, the wind had tapered off to a comparatively mild breeze but forecasts indicated that more wind and rain is on the way.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted variable cloudiness with a few showers today. Strong, gusty northerly winds are expected today and tonight, decreasing Saturday.

Yesterday's high temperature here was 82. The low was 54 degrees.

Blowing Sand Blamed in Crash

INDIO — Blowing sands and a lack of driving experience was believed to be the cause of a two-car, rear-end collision on Highway 99 near Indio yesterday, bringing minor injuries to one of the drivers, California Highway Patrol officers said.

A car driven by Miss Rosalie Ann Jakes, 15½, Thermal, struck the rear of a car driven by Travis A. Geasler, of Redlands, after her car hit a raised left turn marker and went out of control, the CHP said.

Geasler received a small cut on his right hand, officers said.

NARCOTICS OFFICERS from all over the State of California met yesterday in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi restaurant, in the first annual meeting of the combined groups of the state. Wayland Lee Speer, assistant to the director of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, Washington, D. C., was the keynote speaker, and told of world narcotic trade legislation and enforcement. Pictured above with Chief of Police August G. Kettmann arriving at the luncheon are, left to right from front, Speer, Kettmann, Det. Carroll Vogelaar, Palm Springs; Frank E. Ramon Road Interchange Set in Budget

Plans for construction of a Highway 99-Ramon Road interchange at Thousand Palms are included in the California Highway Commission's state road construction program for the next fiscal year.

The $250,000 Thousand Palms project is part of a Highway Commission budget that exceeds one-half billion dollars.

The local project calls for construction of an interchange, structures and approaches for the Ramon Road-Highway 99 intersection, the commission announced today.

Other Riverside County highway projects include the $800,000 conversion of 1.9 miles of expressway to freeway on Highway 91, from Riverside's Spruce Street to the San Bernardino County line, and construction work on a Colorado River bridge near Blythe.

PASSENGER SHIP, FREIGHTER HIT

NEW YORK (UPI)—The passenger ship Israel and the freighter American Press collided near the Statue of Liberty Thursday night with an impact some of the Israeli's passengers said today had "the noise of a bomb."

One crew member of the Israeli ship was reported missing. Several passengers and crew members were injured. Apparently none seriously.

A PASSENGER, Roger Pellow-ski, Milwaukee, said he saw the missing man, identified as Anthony Benites, securing a gangway a moment before the impact "but saw nothing of him after."

Flash Flooding Takes Two Lives

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Flash flooding, loosed by a lashing storm in the desert, took the lives of two children who were swept from their mothers arms Thursday night.

Many of the Israel's 200 passengers were in the dining room at the time of the collision, and several of them described the crash sound as like that of a bomb.

The Rev. E. Paul Kopp of the United Fundamental Church, Los Angeles, was in the dining salon with his wife and two children.

"WE HEARD A terrible noise," he said. "It sounded like heavy objects on an empty floor. A little boy cried and one woman screamed. Water began pouring into the dining room, and there was some panic, but the panic quickly subsided with the help of the crew and officers."

Ship officers said the water came from broken pipes. Damage to both vessels was above the water line.

On Constitutionality

Union Appeals To Court Today

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United Steelworkers Union formally appealed to the Supreme Court today to review the Taft-Hartley injunction ordering the 500,000 steelworkers back to work.

The union filed a petition challenging the constitutionality of emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act under which the government sought to halt the strike for 80 days.

AT THE SAME time, the union asked the high tribunal to extend a stay of the injunction until it finally decides the case.

The U. S. Court of Appeals in Philadelphia, upholding a Pittsburgh District Court decision to issue the injunction, gave the steelworkers until Monday to appeal the injunction.

The union's 25-page petition said the injunction presented questions of utmost gravity that should be decided by the highest court in the land. The Supreme Court has never ruled on Taft-Hartley injunction procedures.

Survivors Attacked by Scorpions

Frantic Appeals For Anti-Venom Serum Received

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—An avalanche caused by heavy rains obliterated the village of Minatitlan Tuesday with a sudden blow that may have snuffed out 800 lives, reports from the storm-devastated west coast disclosed today.

Swarms of scorpions and tarantulas attacked the injured survivors when the rain-loosened side of the Copales Mountains thundered onto the village and tore loose the nests of the poisonous insects (arachnids). Frantic appeals for anti-venom serum were radioed to Mexico City.

THE DISASTER at Minatitlan was one of a series that hit Mexico's Pacific Coast Tuesday when a storm, described as a cyclone, wiped out a dozen villages.

The Minatitlan deaths, if confirmed, would raise the toll to more than 1,000 and there were fears the final figure might be 2,000.

The fate of 1,000 persons in the flooded town of Zacoalpan in northern Colima state was still in doubt. An aircraft pilot who flew over the area on a relief mission said only the church steeple was protruding above the flood waters.

TEN COASTAL villages were reported wiped off the map by the storms and high tides. Ten small freighters were sunk, including the passenger - freighter Sinaloa with 27 dead. Three American women on the Sinaloa were missing — Mrs. Lucille Pettit of Laguna Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Margaret Gower and Mrs. F. R. Harris, both of Acapulco, Mexico.

George Zelfi, captain of the tuna clipper Mary Barbara, out of San Diego, Calif., was caught by the storm in the port of Manzanillo. He said the town looked as if it had been bombarded from the air. He said he thought the town was 90 per cent destroyed.

30,000 PRINTING ORDERED FOR DHS CHAMBER BROCHURE

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Progress is being made toward the publication of 30,000 colorful and informative brochures on Desert Hot Springs, Robert Lester, president, Chamber of Commerce, said today.

Brochures will be distributed widely throughout the United States and Canada.

PLANNED FOR the brochures are more than 1.5 million total pages for the total number of brochures. However, the brochure itself will be of regular brochure size, except that it is planned to be somewhat larger than last year's, with a more varied content.

Pages and stories will depict Desert Hot Springs as "America's Fastest Growing Health Resort."

Lester said that the response of the residents of the community on listing their names, addresses and telephone numbers has been excellent.

CIVIC LEADERS hope that all residents will be in the brochure directory.

'Trick or Treat' Has New Concept

CATHEDRAL CITY—Halloween has a new kind of "trick or treat" meaning for the junior high school group of the Community Church Westminster Fellowship.

This year, the trick or treaters will seek gifts for the United Nations Children's Fund "to treat all the world's children," church officials said.

Cathedral City area residents were asked to welcome the youngsters with treats when they visit area homes between 5 and 7 p.m. Saturday.

Lester urges each individual to show his interest in the town to the utmost so that this year's brochure may be the most representative of any heretofore published.

The chamber president also urges all persons to become members of the chamber and work toward the community's further growth.

Market Well Informed, But Facts Not Always Weighed by Writers

By PAUL H. MACGREGOR
E. F. HUTTON & COMPANY

Perhaps no segment of American business is so well supplied with information and opinion as the Stock Market, but unfortunately some writers appear to not fully weigh available information in expressing their opinions. I have two recent incidents in mind, as regards the steel situation.

Several writers have expressed the opinion that it would take six weeks or more for the steel industry to reach 85 per cent of capacity after the strike is ended, and the Government priority order for steel would be a serious handicap for corporations in getting their orders filled promptly.

WE HAVE NO inside information on these subjects, but I do have the records; read them and form your own conclusions: In the 1956 strike, some mills continued to operate, as was the case in this strike. In the last week of the strike, steel output was at the rate of 17.5 per cent of capacity. The record of production the following three weeks, in operations as per cent of capacity was: First week, 52.4; second week, 85.5, and third week, 95.1.

And in the 6th week after the strike, 100.1 per cent of capacity was reached.

PRESENTLY, THE steel producing capacity is approximately 2,800,000 tons per week. Following are annual consumption figures for the two major consuming industries, and the Ordnance Department; the year 1952 is given because that was a Korean war year:

Steel consumption on an annual basis (in tons) for 1952, 1956, 1957 and 1958:

Automotive:	10,850,000;	14,142,000;	14,227,000;	10,125,000.
Construction:	8,094,000;	11,960,000;	12,457,000;	10,090,000.
Ordnance:	2,096,000;	524,000;	356,000;	239,000.

IT WOULD TAKE the industry about 15 hours to produce all the steel used last year for Ordnance purposes, working a 24-hour day.

Another factor in regard to the priority order is pointed out by the magazine Steel. It says that high-grade alloy steel is principally demanded by the Defense Department and that about 45 per cent of alloy steel production has been and is operating. In my opinion, the priority order may be almost fully discounted as an adverse factor when production is again under way.

AS STATED LAST week, the fortunes of the economy and the stock market are wrapped up in the steel situation. Once that roadblock is cleared away, business should proceed at a rapid pace.

Business Week magazine points out that: (1) Inventory building will be frantic. (2) Capital spending by business will rise strongly. (3) Consumer buying will climb—mainly because personal income is certain to rise as steelworkers and other casualty workers of the strike return to work.

SHREWD INVESTORS are primarily concerned about what lies ahead rather than the current situation. May I counsel that we should keep our eyes fixed on 1960. The current shortage of steel, which is beginning to curtail the production of hard goods, is at the same time building up an accumulation of business for 1960.

The bullish factors mentioned by Business Week should be given serious consideration in formulating an investment program. At times the Stock Market will deviate from the business trend, but in the end it will follow the path set by corporate earnings, and pet technical theories to the contrary.

COMMON BIBLE IS NOW POSSIBILITY

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
For more than four centuries, the Reformation split in the Christian family has been underscored by the existence of "Protestant Bibles" and "Catholic Bibles."

Now Biblical scholars are saying the time is ripe to eliminate this particular symbol of division. THEY BELIEVE IT is quite feasible for Protestants and Catholics to get together on a joint translation of the Scriptures.

The idea got a powerful boost this week from the respected Catholic Journal America. In an article entitled "The Bible Is A Bond," Associate Editor Walter M. Abbott, S.J., said a common translation of the Bible "would be a great achievement in the history of Christianity."

WHILE AGREEMENT on the exact wording of the Bible would by no means settle all doctrinal differences between Catholics and Protestants, Fr. Abbott pointed out, it would put an end to a number of mutual irritants such as different renditions of the Lord's Prayer, and different numbers of the Ten Commandments.

When all Christians are "talking about the same Commandments," said Fr. Abbott, "there would be hope for better observance of the one great Commandment — to love one another."

Fr. Abbott's article drew an immediate, warm response from a leading Protestant authority.

DR. ROBERT M. Grant, president of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, said it would be "hard to overestimate" the importance of a universally recognized translation of the Bible as a "unifying force" among Christians.

A joint translation is, of course, easier to propose than to accomplish. Biblical translators, even when they are of the same denomination, can spend months in heated debate over the meaning of a single phrase. But the very fact the project can now be seriously considered is evidence of the strong current of unity which is now running in all branches of the Christian church.

TWENTY YEARS ago the whole idea would have been regarded as hopeless. At that time, many Catholics viewed with distrust the energetic efforts of Protestant scholars to recover the original meaning of the Scriptures through the scientific methods of modern Biblical criticism.

Pope Pius XII radically altered the situation in 1943. He issued an encyclical urging Catholics to make full use of every advance in history, archeology and linguistics to produce better translations, and better understanding, of the Bible.

WHEN CATHOLIC scholars plunged into this task, they found, in Fr. Abbott's words, that "a vast amount of excellent and objective work" had already been done by Protestants. Following the Pope's directive, they "adopted whatever was solidly and scientifically established by Protestant scholars while making their own investigations."

Because both groups were working toward the same goal, and using the same objective methods, they found it natural and easy to cooperate. Mutual respect grew steadily, until it is now commonplace for Catholic and Protestant Biblical scholars to attend meetings and seminars together and even to write for each other's journal.

WITH THIS background, Fr. Abbott suggested, it should not be too difficult for outstanding Protestant and Catholic scholars to arrive at a meeting of minds on a joint translation of the Bible into English.

In this connection, he noted that a group of British Catholic scholars recently made a detailed study of the revised standard version of the Bible—a translation that resulted from many years of intensive work by leading American Protestant Biblical authorities.

Letter Carrier, Postal Clerk Openings Exist

Letter carrier and postal clerk positions are now available in Palm Springs Post Office, and applications will be accepted effective immediately and until further notice, Postmaster S. M. Williams announced today.

"To stay abreast of the growth of our city, we must continue to recruit well qualified employees in order that we may maintain high standards of mail service in this community," Williams said.

Applicants must reside within the delivery limits of the Palm Springs Post Office, must be U. S. citizens at least 18 years of age, and must qualify on a civil service examination before they may be appointed.

Interested persons may secure additional information at the post office, 849 North Palm Canyon Drive, or by calling FA 4-1608.

By GRETCHEN CHEESEMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Deiley of Corona Del Mar were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Chase, IV. Mrs. Deiley is Mrs. Chase's niece.

Mrs. Marion Campbell, longtime resident here who has moved to Coronado, was here a few days this week. She still has business interests here and always has to visit her daughter and family who reside in Indio.

there this winter, arriving this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aiello are new residents here, having purchased a home on Larrera Street. Mr. R. Aubrey, of Chicago, was a guest of the Aiellos this past week.

Dr. Merle Horner of Pacific Palisades spent a day or two with Jewell and Bill Bibee in their Candlewood Street home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. John Nelson of Spokane, Wash., have purchased a home in the Sandpiper units and are arriving this week to be here all winter.

A cocktail party honoring new members was hosted by the Shadow Mountain Club last Saturday night. A surprisingly large group of new arrivals became members during the summer months. Seen here and there were the Tony diMayles, Ralph Fisters, Forrest Bowers, Eloise Carpenter and the Elgin Coles, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Sweet, Max Hoeftners, Lowell Clarkes, Russ Nicolls, E. Fred Franklins and guests, the Floyd Sharps and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmet Sidell-Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, George Morcks, Robert Reids, Harold Wrights, W. F. Roberges, Robert Fithians, Harold Wieders, James Goddells, Jay Prices, L. W. Thompsons, George Pratts and many more.

Mrs. E. P. Nittinger (Verna) returned home a week or so ago after a summer spent with her daughter in Oakland. She is now entertaining houseguests from Santa Monica, Mrs. Harry Hensley, Mrs. Merritt Salzman and Mrs. Clem Bates. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith of Oakland will fly down next week for a two weeks stay with Mrs. Nittinger.

More Sandpiper news! Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bessemeyer of Newport Beach will be residents

Soviets 'Have Man Set' For Flight in Space

ROME (UPI) — A Russian expert on space medicine said today he believed his government had a man ready to attempt space flight.

Dr. Andrei Kouznetsov of the U.S.S.R. Academy of Science emphasized that this was his "personal belief" and that as a researcher who devoted his time strictly to animals, he had no direct knowledge of the subject. "But I believe the man himself is ready," he said.

American scientists attending the World Congress of Aviation and Medicine here agreed that the Russian scientist probably was correct.

"There is a general feeling the Russians already have a man ready to go," said Maj. Gen. Oliver K. Neiss, surgeon general of the Air Force and chief of the American delegation to the congress.

Home Development In the Sun

FLOATING, AS IT WERE, upon the rocky terrain at the foot of Mount San Jacinto in Palm Springs, California, the Franz Alexander home incorporates some 2600 square feet. As designed by Walter White of Palm Desert, steel was used to solve the problem site and also to provide a dramatic roof line. Carport area under the house was a result of the sloping site with a minimum number of boulders in that area.

HOME OF THE WEEK

Boulder-Strew Lot Provided Lovely Setting

By JOHN WARNER
A sloping lot strewn with gigantic boulders would not normally be considered an ideal site for a home.

But, this is the type of lot that the Franz Alexanders owned here. They built a 2,600 square foot home on it, leaving a majority of the boulders in place.

DESIGNER WALTER White of Palm Desert solved Alexander's site problem by simply supporting the house above the boulders on a level platform. Only a minimum of blasting and bulldozing was necessary to accomplish this solution, as designer White utilized columns of steel to support the steel-framed home.

Enough boulders were removed around the perimeter of the home by Rooth & Carr, the general contractor, to pour seven small steel reinforced footings. They were connected by a bond beam. Two large footings were also poured at this time to provide support for two concrete block shear walls.

COLUMNS WERE placed 13 feet on center on the footings. Three-inch pipe columns were used in rear of the home; and Bethlehem Steel's 4-inch channels, welded back to back, were used in the front. There are actually two diagonal columns for each footing in the front, as each rises in a "V" shape at a 30 degree angle. The forward portion of the "V" terminates at floor line and cantilevers the terrace-deck while the rear portion is continuous to roof line.

Beam to column connections were accomplished by welding. The flanges of the 10-inch wide flange 21-pound Bethlehem beams were cut away at the intersect point to permit the backs of the channel-columns to be welded directly to the beam's web. A 1/4-inch steel spacer plate was welded between the channels to allow for the web thickness of the beam.

THE BEAMS SPAN 18 feet, 6 inches with an 8-foot extension on the terrace side and a 5-foot, 6-inch cantilever on the street side to permit an over-all beam length of 34 feet. Standard wooden floor joists are continuous between the first two of the six bents. The web of the beams were field cut 16 inches on center to permit passage of these continuous joists.

Both the channel-columns and pipe columns are continuous to roof line where they are spanned longitudinally by a 4-inch channel. Main roof members are composed of 8-inch BL, 17-pound steel sections which were cambered to a 100-foot radius with a 28-foot, 2-inch chord by Hale Steel Company of Rialto, the fabricator and erector. Each cambered section was welded to the columns and spans 15 feet with a 6-foot, 3-inch cantilever on the terrace side and a 6-foot, 6-inch cantilever on the rear side.

BY CAMBERING the roof beams, Walter White, working in conjunction with structural engineer Stanley Malora, was able to achieve a tangent line with the horizon — thereby identifying the structure with the terrain and completely opening the interior to the terrace-deck on the south side. Steel-framed Arcadia glass sliding doors open the full length of the terrace-deck. Above door height, stationary glass extends to the roof line. A light shelf between these two glass areas is supported by rectangular steel tubes and provides necessary shade as well as dramatic effect.

This same glass line is maintained around the perimeter of the house. Even on the west side where a brown pumice stone shear wall extends 7 feet above the floor line, the glazed area extends above that to follow the roof contour. The rest of the exterior is paneled in one by six tongue and groove redwood boards running vertically to a height of 7 feet from floor level to the glass line.

THE FLOOR PLAN is a rectangle incorporating two bedrooms, two baths, dressing room, library, living room, dining room, kitchen, and a gallery. Walls in the living and working areas of the home are composed of redwood panels and rise to a height of only 6 feet, 10 inches to accentuate the visual freedom prevalent throughout the home. Walls in the bedroom and bath area are floor to ceiling for privacy and were also designed to take lateral loads.

A singular fireplace accents the living room. A 2-foot, 8-inch diameter 16-gauge steel hood in the shape of an inverted cone is suspended from the ceiling by an 18-inch diameter 16-gauge flue. The hearth is simply a brasier transformed from a 2-foot, 4-inch diameter boiler head supported by three steel legs. This island fireplace is painted black and is encircled by a steel hoop 5 feet in diameter, containing charcoal-colored pebbles.

TYPICAL OF THE economies exercised by White in the construction of the home is the use of the boulders excavated for footing placement. He combined this refuse material with the boulders excavated for the 28-foot-diameter pool. The boulders were placed around the pool deck and gunnited to form an attractive retaining wall and windbreak.

According to Walter White, the design for the Alexander home was not dictated entirely by the problems inherent in the site. Rather, he felt that Dr. Alexander, an eminent psychologist, and his wife should have a home that would shelter them but not confine either physically or visually — thus the dramatically cambered roof line opens the sky, desert, mountains, and pool to the view of the occupants. Even as the philosophical needs of the clients played a role in shaping the structure, so did designer White's love of systematized efficiency and economical use of material dictate the mechanics of the home.

WALTER WHITE felt that the structure is analogous to the human anatomy in the way that the steel frame supports and contains the exterior and interior structural components as well as the functioning portions of the home, much in the way that the human skeleton supports and contains elements of the body.

By means of holes burned through the webs of the floor support beams, the respiratory or cooling and heating systems are carried throughout the home. Separate holes were also burned for conduits to carry the nervous or electrical system as well as the circulatory or plumbing system. Thus the whole home is integrated with, and dependent upon a frame of steel.

Groundbreaking Set for Banning Masonic Lodge

BANNING — Groundbreaking ceremonies will be held Saturday on the new Masonic Temple at Williams and Woodland Street here, it was announced today by San Geronimo Lodge No. 668.

After years of planning and arranging for financing the new building, actual construction will get under way immediately. Upon its completion, the Masonic Temple will house a host of Masonic sub-organizations and their activities, including the Masons, DeMolay, Rainbow Girls, Eastern Star, White Shrine and the Shrine Club.

Ceremonies will be held at 2 p.m.

Fertilizer Yard Given Approval

Durham Chemical Co. of Los Angeles was granted a permit by the Board of Supervisors this week to establish and operate a fertilizer storage yard near Coachella, on property located on the west side of Highway 111 south of 53rd Avenue and east of Tyler.

In addition to storage of anhydrous ammonia, the permit will allow the manufacture and storage of aqua ammonia and other liquid fertilizers containing nitrogen, phosphoric acid, and potash.

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Weed Removal Is Important

If Mr. Amateur Gardener is starting out on a plot of land that contains, among the desert sand, a variety of weeds that should be eliminated before preparing the soil for lawn or plant growth his first chore should be the permanent removal of the pesky weeds.

We would not advise the use of plain diesel oil mainly because the odor is strong and may last more than a week. There are other weed oils but most of them are fortified with chemicals that act like a yellow dye and are toxic to humans and dogs. Sometimes the oils are fortified with pentachlorophenol or I.P.C. These are a little stronger on weeds but still odorless.

SOME LANDSCAPE gardeners and ranchers use a white petroleum preparation that does a good job on all small weeds and does not leave an unwanted stain. It is sometimes mentioned as No. 350 thinner or Stoddard solvent and it can be purchased under the names of different oil companies.

The latter preparation is also useful when the house owner wants a lawn of white or colored stone in which he would plant a variety of Cacti, a system which is gradually becoming the vogue.

TO FEEL SECURE that weeds or grasses will not show up later and take away the beauty of this type of lawn he should insist on — after the weeding is completed — an overall covering of commercial asphalt roofing before installing the graveled stone. This would safely eliminate any chance of weeds appearing after a few heavy rains. Yes, we do get heavy rains sometimes, and even floods!

Bulbs, rhizomes and corms should be in the ground by this time. The depths at which they should be planted vary a lot according to the flower. Gladioli corms should be bedded four inches deep and six to eight inches apart. Anemones and Ranunculus two inches deep and six inches apart. Tulips four inches deep and four to eight inches apart. Iris only one inch deep and 12 to eight inches apart while Daffodils should be planted six inches deep and 12 inches apart.

All of these when in flower are liable to attack from borers, aphids, thrip and the bulb fly, so keep an eye on them.

ESPECIALLY watch Anemones and Ranunculus as the birds are very fond of these growths when they are in bloom. All of above mentioned plants, whether from rhizomes, bulbs or corms, should be fed with a mixture of bone meal worked into the soil, peat moss on top to lessen evaporation, but none of the manures should be mixed with this soil. To keep azaleas and camellias moist peat moss should be mulched into this soil also.

If you are sufficiently lucky to own a shaded garden, Calla Lilies, white, pink or golden, all with beautifully marked foliage, and with some care like well drained soil and bone meal, should need thought at this time. They bloom for many months and add much beauty to your garden not to mention their stately appearance when used as cut flowers for indoor use.—T.G.M.

How to Write for Newspapers

Publicity, or the lack of it, makes the public relations for your organization. Good public relations determines to a large extent the success of club projects and wins the support so necessary if a club is to grow, to fulfill its purpose, or to raise money to finance its projects.

Clubs and other civic organizations are an important part of Village life and contribute to its progress. It is through their organized efforts that the Village grows, trying out new ideas, financing things for which no provision has been made by the city budget or by the Chamber of Commerce. The men and women, active in these organizations, are leaders in the community, and the story of what they are doing is recorded for you day by day in your daily Desert Sun.

Because The Desert Sun believes in the vital importance of Village clubs and organizations and wants to help promote their efforts in every way possible, it sponsored today's Press Seminar, working with the press chairman to bring the full story to the public.

The Press Seminar was conducted by The Desert Sun's women's editor Hildy Crawford, who outlined some of the following information that makes for a better flow of news, from source to newspaper, to reading public. It is suggested that Press Chairmen clip and save this article.

How to Do It

The Desert Sun never knowingly neglects to print the news, but there are many ways in which the press chairman can make it easier for us. First, no newspaper can print the news if they don't know about it. It's up to you to get it in, observing deadlines, and presenting your news in legible form.

Deadline for the woman's page is 24 hours in advance. Articles intended for a certain day can be written in advance with a release date. To be certain of getting it into print that day, it must be in the editor's hands not later than 10 o'clock of the preceding day. Once a deadline is past there's nothing can be done about it.

Because of space limitations it is always better to get your material in days in advance, and follow-up stories should be brought in the next morning before 10.

Every newspaper has its own style and submitted copy will be edited to conform to that style. There is no set form which a press chairman must follow to have news printed. If it's NEWS it will be printed.

However, the smart press chairman will follow a few simple requirements.

1. No hand written copy ever goes to the linotype... so please type your copy. No all capitals (the linotype follows copy and your newspaper is not printed in capitals); double space to leave room for corrections. Flimsy paper is difficult to handle and the typing is hard to read. Worn out typewriter ribbons make hard-to-read copy and no editor is ever happy with a carbon copy. It is assumed that a press chairman can type, but if you must bring in occasional notes in long-hand, please print any names. Use only one side of the paper.

2. Leave wide margins at the top of the paper and at the sides, putting your name, the name of your organization, and your telephone number, in the upper left hand corner of the page.

3. Nothing but urgent late news or corrections should be telephoned in as there isn't time in a newspaper office to take long stories over the phone, and it is almost impossible to get the correct spelling of names that way... too many letters sound the same over the telephone.

4. Newspaper deadlines are not elastic. They can't be changed. Publicity and everything but late news should come in several days in advance. If a story is meant to appear in the Tuesday paper, it must be in by 10 a.m. on Monday, or can be brought in days earlier, with a release date on it.

5. Put the women's editor on your mailing list, so that all important dates get into the social and club calendar. Send an advance notice to the paper to stimulate interest in attendance at your meetings. If the meeting is important enough for a follow-up story, try to get it in the next morning. A daily newspaper likes its news while it is still news.

6. Remember that publicity is for your organization not for individuals.

7. Keep a carbon copy of your story and check it against published story to see what changes have been made in your copy.

Do's and Don'ts

DO remember the five "W" rule — who, what, when, where and why. This is basic and don't assume the newspaper has the full background of the story because it has already printed a story on it. Too many stories flow over the copy desks and it takes time to look up previous stories.

DO be accurate, using dates as well as days of the week.

DO use names, being sure that they are spelled correctly, and using full names. Your Yellow Directory is a tool for the press chairman. A married woman's name is always "Mrs. John Brown" unless your club uses first names in its publicity. Which ever you use, be certain that it's all one way or the other, not a mixture.

DO write your story in interesting fashion not like minutes. Stick to the pertinent facts, starting out with the most important, and try to make it an interesting and fair report of what took place. Include a brief resume of what a speaker said, rather than reporting that it was interesting.

DO eliminate adjectives of opinion, words of praise or thanks. Instead of writing "the decorations were beautiful," describe them.

DON'T use prices in stories or boost commercial enterprises as this constitutes advertising.

DON'T mention affairs or lotteries, or prizes dependent on chance. These are taboos by the postal regulations and could bar a newspaper from the mails.

DO observe the styling for lists of officers and names, using lower case for "hospitality chairman" and "vice president," etc.

A Club or other organization has one contact with the newspaper... its publicity chairman... and all stories should be channeled through this person.

All women's clubs or social events such as Ladies' Nights, come to the Women's department and should be so labeled. Please do not try to plant your stories in more than one department of the newspaper.

Pictures

The Desert Sun photographers are wherever the news is, recording it for publication, and it's their pictures that provide advance publicity for your club events, assuring attendance and helping you raise the money needed for club projects.

With so many clubs and organizations, it is obvious that every club can't have a picture for every event. So choose the meetings you think the most important or that will make the best publicity for your group... NOT just to get the pictures of individuals into the newspaper.

If you have some event you need help with or want a picture, call the Women's department (NEVER the photographer, who works only on assignments) and consult about it.

A picture should tell a story, so see that it has atmosphere. Group your people closely (never at arm's length and never in a lineup), and limit the number to key people concerned in the event you are publicizing. Three

City of Hope Will Honor New Members

A grand reception and card party will be held on Monday, November 2, 8 p. m., at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road, by the Palm Springs Chapter, City of Hope. The meeting will be dedicated to the many men and women of Palm Springs who have joined the City of Hope so far this year. Sue Grossman, program chairman, announced that after a brief business session there will be a special program honoring the new members, followed by a card party and refreshments.

Another Gourmet Sale is being planned by Mrs. Herman Wittenberg and her committee. As usual there will be a wide assortment of delectable delicacies available to the public. Time and place will be announced.

Mrs. Fae Brezin, president, will be on hand to welcome all members and any resident of Palm Springs who wishes to become a member of this nonsectarian group of men and women, dedicated to the task of helping City of Hope Medical Center in its relentless search for the eradication of all catastrophic diseases.

Rummage Sale

St. Theresa Rummage Sale is starting tomorrow, at 9 a. m. and will be open all day, until 9 p. m. and will continue all week, there are many items on sale, including clothing, dishes and furniture.

Rummage sale chairman Mrs. Elizabeth Daly McIntyre has stated that anyone having rummage to be picked up may call her at FA 8-3638 or by calling the Rectory at FA 5-2902.

Remember... we want your news and will help you all we can. Lots of Luck!

Spooks in Hobo Attire at Desert Does Halloween Party

The "Spook Party", which is an annual affair staged by the Desert Does and includes husbands and escorts, had a hobo theme this year. The dining room of Elks Hall where the party was held Tuesday evening, was converted into a "Hobo Jungle."

Desert Sun newspapers were used as tablecloths and centered with dripped-down candles in tin cans. Adding a little dignity to this derelict scene were pumpkins, and corn in the Halloween motif. Maria Scott and her committee were responsible for their hobo-beatnik decor.

Most of the guests, dressed in a varied assortment of hobo costumes, chose to sit on the floor and eat their mulligan stew from tin cans (clean coffee tins). Unrecognizable, according to reports, was Cecil Korngate who won first prize in a tattered costume that seemed to be sprouting vegetables, and the limburger cheese she had stashed in one of her pockets didn't make her the most popular hobo of the evening. Second and third prizes went to Hope Studebaker and Marilyn Mason.

The report from the many who attended was that they were very much in favor of these informal parties.

Have Visitors from Indiana Here from LaPorte, Indiana are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kozlen and daughters Karol and Kathy who arrived Wednesday by train.

They will spend two or three weeks here as guests of Mr. Kozlen's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kozlen of 2702 Plamor. The Kozlens expect to take the visitors to Disneyland and will be their hosts at the annual Night in Trinidad party at the Ranch Club.

Club Planning Afternoon Tea An Afternoon Tea will highlight the regular meeting of the Cathedral City Woman's Club to be held at the home of past president Mrs. Warner Moon, 355 Vista Drive in Cathedral City, Wednesday, November 4th. President Mrs. Otto Paulsen will preside at the business meeting scheduled for 2 p. m.

See Floor Show Among those enjoying the late floor show at Chi Chi Saturday evening, after attending the Rotary dinner at Desert Air Park, were Messrs. and Mmes. Ed Slaughter, Court Hadden, Hardin Hart, Robert Bates and Don Mathers from Hollywood, who were the houseguests of the Haddens.

Imported Ghosts to Haunt Sports Car Halloween Party

Ghosts imported from Detroit (the Model T, Stutz Bear Cat, the Reo, the Franklin, the Essex) should be hovering overhead tomorrow night, when members of the Palm Springs Sports Car Club hold a picnic-style Halloween Party at 393 Dominguez Road (Attention, Ghosts: there'll be signs to point the way).

The party, which is being held in the home of Seattleites John Halls, back of the Racquet Club, is being arranged by entertainment committee chairman Mrs. Richard (Ruby) Meyers, assisted by Miss Madeline Hall.

There will be Halloween games, doughnuts on a string and ducking for apples, informal dancing, with hot dogs and beer for refreshments.

Sports car enthusiasts of this area are invited to join with the Club at their meetings and rallies. The Sunday Sports Car Rallies are held once a month, usually starting at the polo grounds. There are monthly meetings held on the first Monday, and the next one is November 2, at 8 p.m. at Imperial Motors in Cathedral City.

NEPHEWS AND NIECES of Mrs. Elsinore Machris Gilliland presented her with this giant birthday card at the weekend party which celebrates her natal day each year. The party is held in Hemet at the home of her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Lally. The birthday dinner was Soboba Hot Springs.

Story Hour Adds Fun to Birthday Party

A story hour, a fishpond, colored balloons, hats and horns, added to the fun at the birthday party of Kristina Buckheim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Buckheim, when she celebrated her third birthday at the Vista Oro home of her parents Thursday afternoon.

The children gathered round Gerry Venic from the children's section of Palm Springs Public Library, as she read animated stories from children's books, and then fished for favors from a gayly decorated fishpond.

Three lighted candles topped the birthday cake and, as Kristina blew them out, her little friends sang "Happy Birthday."

Among the guests, most of whom are from the Palm Springs Community Church Play School, were Trevor Albert, Thurman Arnold III, Steven Chapman, Candy Chase, Kenneth Edwards Jr., Scott Dunlevie, Billy Herbert, Susan Kimberly, Rodney and Sylvia Kokoli, Carol Levin, Donna Michelson, Douglas and Steven Miller, Kirk and Chris Neil, Laure Pitts, James Rainboldt, Joe Riordan, Merri-Ann Ryan, Tina and Heidi Schilling, Albert Wagner Jr. and Ellen Wagner, Glen and Gary Wexler.

Bake Sale

Cathedral City Junior Woman's Club sponsoring a "Bake Sale" Saturday morning October 31, from 10 a. m. until noon, in front of the Cathedral Market. Proceeds of the bake sale will finance the Annual Christmas Party for the children of the Cathedral City area, sponsored each year by the Junior Woman's Club.

Vales Home From O.E.S. Convention

Mr. and Mrs. John Vales of Rancho Mirage returned Friday from Long Beach where he was one of the speakers at the 86th annual Session of Grand Chapter of California, Eastern Star.

Also speaking before the 7,000 members and guests in attendance were Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons of the State of California Judge Joseph Schell of San Diego and the Junior Past Grand Master Phil Myers of Los Angeles. Vales is a member of the Public Relations committee of General Grand Chapter.

Expert Counters Fads With Facts On Food Front

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP) — University of Illinois nutritionist Harriet Barto says food fads rob Americans of millions of dollars each year.

To help straighten out some of these tangled notions, Miss Barto disproves the following fads with facts:

Fad: potatoes and milk are fattening. Fact: no one food settles in the fatty tissues. All foods supply calories and if you consume more calories than your body uses, fat is formed from the surplus carbohydrates, food fat and proteins.

Fad: margarine is more difficult to digest and is less nutritious than butter. Fact: fortified margarine has the same nutrients as butter and is as easily digested.

Fad: Pasteurization reduces the food value of milk. Fact: the only nutrient that is affected in pasteurization is vitamin C, and milk isn't a rich source of this vitamin.

Fad: flour ground at home is superior to commercially ground flour. Fact: the two flours have exactly the same nutritive value.

Junior Women's Club Pins Nine Members in Initiation

"Strength United Is Stronger" was inscribed on the pins presented to nine young Villagers by Mrs. Ray Burkett, membership chairman of the Palm Springs Junior Women's Club, in her home at 562 Bedford Drive.

Table centerpiece was a chain forming a circle, representing the chain of Federated Women's Clubs that encircle the world, with the Palm Springs Juniors representing but a link in that chain.

Mrs. Jack Koehler, president, presented the new members with initialed charm bracelets and explained the significance of the bracelet, a symbol of the link in the chain of unity and a constant reminder of the obligation toward a common goal.

Initiated were: Mmes. William Anderson, W. F. Helms, Jerry Lehfeldt, William Leoncio, Bud Mersch, John Neil, Richard Rajcher, Terrence Roach and James Thompson.

Mrs. Jack T. Koehler also presented coordinator pins to Senior Coordinator Mrs. Charles Schwenk, and Junior Coordinator Mrs. Ray Burgin. Both coordinators are members of the Palm Springs Federated Women's Club.

Youth Chairman Mrs. J. R. Wahlberg gave out containers for the Juniors' youngsters to take trick or treating for UNICEF, with the reminder that one penny will buy a glass of milk for a child in India.

Pink and white club colors were evident from the candies and carnations on the table to the mints and angel food cake (made with alternate layers of cake, vanilla ice cream and strawberry sherbet, and iced overall with pink whipped cream).

Hostesses, Mmes. Ray Burkett, Gene Stormoen and Richard Hill joined other regular members Mmes. William Shupe, Martin Johnson, Sidney Watson, Richard Kimberly, J. R. Wahlberg, Jack T. Koehler and Edwin Buckheim, Jr. in get-acquainted small talk over refreshments with the new Juniors.

Costume parties are the thing... this Halloween season... including tonight's Tahitian Party which is the season-opener for Tennis Club... when guests will be wearing Hawaiian or Oriental garb...

Tomorrow night is the Halloween dinner dance at Thunderbird... with costumes optional... They are expecting around 175... You can't tell ahead of time of course... but when Thunderbird members get into the party mood... it can be gaily gala... There are more and more returnees each day... with members and guests making it a mecca as Ryder Club matches draw near... Now that our Second Summer has subsided... and November is at hand... who would wish to be anyplace else?

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brech (Ford VP) and son and daughter-in-law... the Robert Breeches... were here en route to a convention in Carmel... The Earl Buckinghams are due any day now... Mr. and Mrs. Frank Godchaux are already here... as are the Don Peglers of Fairway Cottages... and the Richard Guelichs are here from Buffalo... and the Richard Snidmans from Chicago... Buddy and Jack Bligh are expected to arrive around the first...

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Prentice (vice president of Kraft Foods) of Chicago are staying at Thunderbird... as guests of Perry Como... Expected to arrive within the next week... Gus Layton, the Ben Gales, the Robert Dwyers, Randolph Scotts and guest E. C. Alvord... the Freeman Goddens... Robert Goldwater (brother of Arizona's Senator)... the Merritt Joslyns... Clarke Swansons, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Vought... Oliver Morris, Tal Tribble... and a host of others...

Ukie Sherrin survived another summer... this time in Dallas... and is back in Palm Springs... and La Paz got him... You'll find him there with Charlie Barnett...

The Joe Calwells (she's the former Madeline Eklund of Long Beach) who were married in Reno last weekend... have invited friends to attend a wedding reception... which they are holding in the Ranch Club Estates Golf Club house this evening... Joe... of course... is the Club pro...

The Greg Bautzers (Dana Wynter) had distinguished weekend guests at their Palm Springs home... French Ambassador Herve Alphand and Mrs. Alphand... and Consul General Romaine Gary and Madame Gary... The whole party were a luncheon group at Racquet Club...

Ginny Simms is home again... after being in Seattle most of the summer... and looking wonderful...

Glenn Austin had a birthday on Wednesday... and he and Vivian and their daughter Angela celebrated quietly that evening... but Glenn bought himself a wonderful birthday gift... a big new 1960 car...

There's a lot of fun been going

Toastmistress Clubs Honor Founders Day

"Gracious Pioneers" was the theme for the desert area Toastmistress Clubs Founders' Day meeting held at the Shadow Mountain Club in Palm Desert. Dateland Club of Indio was the hostess club, and their president, Marci Blatt, presided over the meeting. Florence Ingersoll, president of Council 8, was presented and evaluated the meeting.

Members of the Palm Springs Toastmistress Club who attended the luncheon meeting were Suzanne Hubbard, Margot Morrison, Martha Roach, Theora Wight and Gertrude Anderson.

Open house for the local club has been planned for the November 2nd meeting at the Desert Inn at 7:30 p. m.

A cordial invitation is extended to women, who are interested, to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Eliminate fish odors from dishes and cooking utensils by sprinkling them with dry baking soda. Wipe with paper toweling, rinse and dry.

Juices for the calorie conscious... and on the other side of the pool were Bloody Marys for guests who came for the fun... Guest of honor at the delightful party was Gretchen (Mrs. Alan) Hale... and everyone went away healthy and happy...

CADILLAC - OLDSMOBILE CORNER

What every Motorist Should know

"Few California motorists are fully aware of the fact that there is a State Law which requires them to dim their headlights whenever they are following another car within 200 feet of the rear. This law is clearly defined in Section 24409-B of the California Vehicle Code. Nearly every nighttime driver has experienced the terrible annoyance of bright lights blasting through the rear window and reflecting into their eyes from the inside and outside rear-view mirrors.

The California Safety Council is doing everything in its power to educate car owners concerning the laws which have been written solely for their own protection, that's why I am calling attention to this highly important section of the Vehicle Code. "The life you save — may be your own."

Desi Arnaz Goes Dramatic on TV

Desi Arnaz stars in his first straight dramatic role in 17 years as a Cuban-American who undergoes a severe emotional ordeal when his wayward sister comes to live with his family, in "So Tender, So Profane" on "Westinghouse Desilu Playhouse" Friday, Oct. 30 (CBS Television Network, 9-10 p.m., p.s.t.).

"So Tender, So Profane," written by Adrian Spies, marks Desi's first serious dramatic appearance since he was featured as a young soldier in the motion picture, "Bataan," in 1942.

CO-STARRING WITH Arnaz are Pedro Armendariz as Silveira, Margo as Mrs. Silveira, Adele Mara as Francesca and Barbara Luna as Emelia.

Arnaz, as Luis Martinez, is torn between brotherly love for his sister and deep-seated shame over her past, when she arrives to mend her ways. His wife, Francesca, begs him to accept the girl.

SILVEIRA, A CORRUPT detective, knows Emelia and her unsavory background, and seeks to drag her down again. When Luis fights to save his sister from Silveira, the detective blackmails an ex-convict into falsely accusing Luis of robbing the cigar factory where he is employed.

weekly host Desi Arnaz will be George Murphy.

Jerry Thorpe produced and directed "So Tender, So Profane," which was filmed at Desilu Studios in Hollywood. Bert Granet is executive producer of "Westinghouse Desilu Playhouse."

GAUGING TV QUIZ SCANDAL IMPACT

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — I hadn't gauged the impact of the TV quiz scandals until:
—President Eisenhower put the attorney general on the case.
—A manufacturer issued, "I rig you the most" buttons.
—Walter Lippman turned his attention to it. This, incidentally, in violation of our agreement. He wasn't going to write about TV if I stayed out of international affairs.

SO, BEFORE THE fixed fifties turn into the sincere sixties, and congressiona quiz - quashers resume their hearings, I thought I'd set down some thoughts on the scandals.

First off, regardless of what Charles Van Doren says or does, enough is known—and was known a year ago — to indicate that the TV quiz shows would have to be cleaned up or eliminated.

VAN DOREN is a side issue, while his fall from grace is taking place, remember that he didn't corrupt Dan Enright. Contact with big-time TV corrupted Van Doren. And remember, too, that if a man like Van Doren can yield to the rationalizations that were showered upon him, who among us could have walked away?

Don't let clever public relations and TV comedians divert attention from the main issue: Big money and higher ratings. We all recall exhibition over those lofty quiz show ratings and the worldwide publicity those shows received.

ONE OF THE numbers Fred Astaire and Barrie Chase will perform during next Wednesday's NBC - TV hour is called, "My Baby," and is based on a "word jazz" narration by Ken Nordine.

Gene (Bat Masterson) Barry visits the Garry Moore Show on CBS-TV Tuesday, Nov. 17.

CAN THE PEOPLE who helped create this mess get a grip on themselves, place principle over expediency, and demonstrate impeccable judgment in the future? Let's just say: They must.

Meanwhile, networks will be tightening control over all phases of programming for some time to come.

Now we come to the argument that, "no laws were broken and nobody got hurt" by fixed quiz shows. Well, no laws were broken only because rigged TV shows are still too new. After all, we didn't get an Atomic Energy Act until we had atomic energy.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Naked City, which failed to stick around as a half-hour series, is being expanded by ABC-TV into an hour-long series for possible network use early in 1960 . . . Tab Hunter has signed on as a guest for Ethel Merman's special on NBC-TV Tuesday, Dec. 1.

Burgess Meredith portrays inventor Eli Whitney in "The Practical Dreamer," second in the NBC-TV series, our American Heritage, slated for Sunday, Nov. 22 . . . George Gobel's special Christmas show on CBS-TV Dec. 20 will feature the 30 - member Tucson Boys' Choir.

ONE OF THE numbers Fred Astaire and Barrie Chase will perform during next Wednesday's NBC - TV hour is called, "My Baby," and is based on a "word jazz" narration by Ken Nordine.

Pro-Member Play Starts Ryder Cup Week Tomorrow at Eldorado

Top Stars To Vie in Tourney

Action starts tomorrow at Eldorado Country Club in an eight-day golf festival to be climaxed the following Friday and Saturday with the 14th renewal of the international Ryder Cup matches between Great Britain and the United States.

Tomorrow's opening feature is a Pro-Member tournament to be concluded Sunday. There will be 18 holes of medal play, 18 each day, with 33 pros and 66 members participating.

THE TWO-DAY tournament will consist of net best ball foursome play with one pro and two members on each team.

Playing will be the 20 Ryder Cup players, 10 British and 10 American and 13 invited pros plus the members.

Pros invited to play along with Ryder Cup team members are: Claude Harmon, Eric Monti, Jerry Barber, Bud Holscher, Gene Littler, Ed Oliver, Paul Harney, Tommy Jacobs, George Bayer, Max Hunter, Jimmy Hines, Paul Runyan and Don Whit.

RYDER CUP PROS who will compete in the Pro-Member event are:

British team — Dai Rees, Peter Alliss, Ken Bousfield, Eric Brown, Norman Drew, Bernard Hunt, Christy O'Connor, Dave Thomas, Harry Weetman and a replacement for Peter Mills, originally named on the team but who resigned this week because of a back injury suffered during practice rounds at Atlanta, Ga., where the British team stopped over for practice en route to Eldorado. His replacement, John Panton, is en route by air from England today.

OTHER PROS in the Pro-Member are the American team of Sam Snead, Julius Boros, Jack Burke Jr., Dow Finsterwald, Doug Ford, Jay Hebert, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, Bob Rosburg, Mike Sou-chak and Art Wall Jr., recently voted the "pro of the year."

Monday and Tuesday of next week will be given over to practice rounds for the Ryder Cup players at Eldorado.

On Wednesday, Celebrity Day, motion picture and television stars will team up with Ryder Cup players in a one-day tournament.

TOP FLIGHT stars of the entertainment world and some of the leading Southland amateurs will be in the field.

Thursday will again be devoted to practice rounds for members of both teams and on Friday the Ryder Cup matches will start.

Doubles will be played on Friday and singles on Saturday.

The British Ryder Cup team, due last night by plane at 6 o'clock, did not arrive until midnight, by bus, due to the high winds which balked their flight. They went directly to Indian Wells Hotel where they will stay during the matches.

THE FINAL ROUND of the matches, Saturday, November 7, will be televised from coast to coast by NBC and also out on radio.

Top newspaper golf writers from the United States and Europe will cover the match.

Ryder Cup players, officials and press representatives will be housed at Indian Wells Hotel.

PAPOOSE GRIDDERS PLAY INDIO HIGH IN RETURN GAME

Palm Springs Junior Varsity football team, originally without a game for today because Yucaipa, their Desert Valley League foe, has no JV team, found themselves a contest to replace the bye.

They will meet the Indio Jayvee team on the local gridiron at 4 p.m. today. Last week they defeated Indio 19-7.

The game, a fill-in, will be a practice affair, Coach Bob Gilmore said, and he and his assistant, Dick Hough, plan to use their reserves in most of the contest to give the lads more experience.

Indians, Yucaipa to Tangle Here Tonight in DVL Game

Palm Springs High School Indians will go into their first official Desert Valley League game tonight at 8 o'clock on the home field with Yucaipa High as their opponents.

The Indians defeated Indio High at Indio last Friday, 30 to 0 but since the Rajahs are playing their first year of interscholastic football, their games do not go into the official DVL standings.

COACH CLARE BALLAGH'S

boys, after dropping their first four practice games against strong non-league competition, are beginning to jell and last week showed great improvement.

The Indians have no record against Yucaipa since that school played in a different league last year.

Yucaipa engaged in its first game this side of the Pass last Friday, losing to Banning, 6-33.

PALM SPRINGS will go into the game favored to win as they showed last week that they were approaching their potential.

With injuries, which plagued the small squad at the start of the season, pretty well out of the way, the Tribe will field a strong team tonight.

In the backfield will be Bill Smith, Tony Gomez, Fred Cockerham and Jim Hill.

Jeff Rollins, the Walton brothers, Gus and J. D., Eric Coleman, Karusich and Gauff will start in the line.

KE'S PLAY MAY HELP RYDER CUPPERS

President's Caddy Says Chief Executive Got Mad at Game, Too

By ROBERT FLICK
United Press International
The best professional golfers of Britain and the United States may benefit from the experience of President Eisenhower when the Ryder Cup Matches are played here Nov. 6-7.

This thirteenth meeting of the classic will be played on the 7,868 yard championship Eldorado Country Club course, not far from the Palm Springs site of an 8-4 U.S. victory in 1955.

Chicago Joe Kerpan, the chief executive's caddy at Eldorado during the President's recent cold-curing desert sojourn, feels that the return of the Ryder Cup play to this area may be a good luck omen for the U.S. team which relinquished the trophy to the Britishers at Yorkshire in 1957.

Kerpan said the President "really enjoyed his golf" on the beautiful par-71 course, with its grass fairways winding their way through palm trees, citrus groves and vineyards.

"Actually," says Chicago Joe, "he's just like other golfers. He gets mad. But of course he doesn't realize that he's not a young man any more — 69 now — and he wants to play like a professional."

The graying club totter went on to say that the President's last two days of golf were his best.

"He was getting over his cold, but what's more important he overcame number four — his jinx hole here at Eldorado."

Kerpan explained that four was the most exacting hole of the course with a narrow fairway lined with grapefruit trees and a large lake bordering the green. "Earlier the President had dropped about three balls in the water," grinned the caddy, "and he told me if he didn't get a par-four this time out he was going back and play it again."

"He teed off, went straight down the fairway, then hit a four-wood — real good — a little on the left side, took a nine iron and put it about 20 feet from the pin and sank his putt."

"He was real happy."

Declining to reveal the President's scores, Chicago Joe conducted himself as if he were a veteran of press conference warfare and ignored this question.

"Actually the short 16th was his best," he continued. "He used a two-iron one day and the ball landed about three feet from the pin. He sank it for a birdie two and then he was really happy."

"What did he shoot that day, Joe?" we asked.

"Funny thing about that 16th hole, later on one of the President's party shot a hole-in-one," he went on. "Used a five iron."

"Generally he did well every day on the more open holes — 10, 11 and 12, that is," Joe offered after parrying two more inquiries about scores. "And I know he enjoyed himself."

This country club, once a date farm, is now sprinkled with "cottages" which sold before the plaster was dry for up to $42,000.

Tennis Clinics Start 3rd Year Tomorrow

Tennis clinics for youngsters of the desert area will get under way tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at Palm Springs High School for the third annual season with Dave Gillam, net pro at the Racquet Club at the helm again.

The clinics were inaugurated by Gillam in 1957 and in the first two years, more than 200 boys and girls attended.

The tennis classes are open to all boys and girls between the ages of 9 and 14 of the Palm Springs Unified School district.

SIX COURTS at the high school will be utilized for the lessons which will be held every Saturday morning for the next five months.

The hours are from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. each clinic day.

City Recreation Department, The Desert Sun and various city service clubs are co-sponsors.

On the program for the third year are tournaments with Redlands, inter-club tournaments, and a city-wide Junior tournament for all boys and girls 9 to 14.

GILLAM URGED all youngsters in the age bracket to attend.

"Even if you never had a tennis racquet in your hand, come out on Saturday morning," he said. "I'll do my best to teach you the exciting game."

Tennis racquets and other awards will go to winners in the various events of the clinic.

Alston Signs With Dodgers Another Year

World Champions' Pilot Glad to Be Back With Team

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers today left Manager Walt Alston nothing to worry about except another winning team in 1960 by reaching terms with him on a one-year contract for next season.

That announcement that Alston and the club's management had reached an agreement on next year's contract was made here Thursday by Vice President and General Manager E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi.

"Alston has accepted terms for a one-year contract — and he was awarded a nice raise," Bavasi said. "We usually wait until the major league meetings in December to sign our managers but we have a coaching situation this year and, of course, want Alston to sit in on the selection of a man to replace Charlie Dressen as coach."

FROM HIS HOME at Darrown, Ohio, Alston said he was "happy to be back" with the club he led to National League and World Series championship this season.

Although Bavasi would not reveal terms of Alston's contract, he was believed to be making around $40,000 a year.

In signing for his seventh season with the Dodgers, Alston ranks as the dean of National League managers and second in the major leagues only to Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees who is going into his 11th year as manager.

Wynn Elated by Winning Award As Top Pitcher

BOSTON (UPI) — Chicago White Sox pitcher Early Wynn, winner of the 1959 Cy Young Award as top pitcher in the major leagues, says if life begins at 40 "I don't know how I'll stand it."

The 39-year-old Wynn whose 22 victories in the past season led the White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years, received the award from his wife Thursday night at Nokomis, Fla.

"I'm tickled to death," said the big right-hander who holds the most victories, 271, of any active pitcher in the majors. He had just returned from a spin around the Gulf of Mexico in his cabin cruiser.

The trophy award, set up in Wynn's memory by baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, was voted by the Baseball Writers Association of America and announced here Tuesday night by the organization's secretary Hy Hurwitz.

Touch Football League to Start Within 2 Weeks

Another call was issued this week by the City Recreation Department for men, 18 years of age and over, who would like to play in the newly organized Men's Touch Football League.

League play is expected to start within two weeks.

Howard Haddock, department superintendent, emphasized that this type of football is strictly for exercise and there will be no tackling or blocking at any time.

The games will be played at the Polo Grounds baseball field.

Sanders Hits Jackpot in Sahara Golf

Defies High Winds To Shoot 80 for 54-Hole Total 219

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Doug Sanders preserved his lead in 50-mile an hour winds Thursday to win the $7,500 Sahara pro-amateur golf tournament with a 54-hole score of 219.

Sanders, short-swinging Miami Beach, Fla., professional, staggered in with an eight over par 80 on the final round in the gale winds over the Las Vegas Municipal Golf Course. His 219 total — three over par for the distance — was four shots better than runner-up Ed (Porky) Oliver.

Sanders' rounds were 66-73-80 — good for $1,000 in silver dollars for first prize. His 66 on the opening round tied a tournament record.

Oliver blew in Thursday with an 82 on the final round for a 223 total which was good for $800 second money.

Next at 225 was Jimmy Clarke of Los Angeles, who won $650 for finishing third and a $100 bonus for firing the best round on the final day — a brilliant, considering the weather, 75.

George Bayer, Glenagles, Ill., who overdrove three 350-yard par-four greens in the wind, and Eric Monti, Los Angeles, were next with 227 good for $450 each.

Ryder Cup stars Jay Hebert and Bob Rosburg found the windy course too tough to handle. Rosburg finished out of the money and Hebert wound up in eighth place.

A team headed by Bill Johnston, Provo, Utah, finished second in the best ball, and another headed by Rosburg finished third.

Golf Clinic for Women Slated at Tamarisk Today

Tamarisk Country Club was the scene today of a golfing clinic for women of the desert area's golf clubs.

Instructors will be Marilyn Smith and Fay Crocker, well known women golf pros and among the leading money winners for the year.

Besides the clinic, they will give demonstration shots and play a nine-hole exhibition match.

SEDGMAN LEADS

VIENNA (UPI) — Frank Sedgman of Australia held a slim one-point lead today in the European professional Grand Prix tennis championships.

LADY GOLFER SUCCUMBS AT BRIDGE TABLE

Pamela Updyke, after having visited the magnificent new homes at El Dorado Palms, succumbed to their charm and beauty today, left the bridge table and ran out to purchase her new home. Ask your realtor, or drive out to El Dorado Palms as soon as you've trumped your partner's ace.

Reservations for Leagues Taken At P.S. Lanes

Reservations are now being accepted for league play at the new Palm Springs Lanes under construction at 2315 McCallum Way, near Sunrise Way.

Frank Sofi, general manager of the new center, is on hand daily at the construction site to accept applications for league bowling. He can also be reached by phone at FA 4-3321 during the day.

Sofi said those interested in league bowling should sign up now as the lanes will be ready for opening in December.

Leagues are being organized for handicap bowlers, scratch, mixed, father and son, mother and daughter, and junior and bantam groups. There will be a certified instructor on hand to teach beginner bowlers soon as the establishment opens.

Photographers Best at Opera

NEW YORK — I love to go to the Metropolitan Opera openings or other performances to listen to the photographers.

They toss off genuine Americana in their comments about the dressed-up celebrities shoving into Sherry's saloon.

Accustomed to exciting events, they feel that these Big Names are a lot of mummies. "This assignment I wouldn't wish on my crummy brother-in-law," snorts one . . .

Now the evening gowns are pushing into the bar at intermission. "This is certainly a flat-chested year," growls one photographer. "Everybody step to the rear of the bus, please! . . . Third race comin' up . . . Who's that old broad with her neck on upside down? . . . Sure you saw her somewhere; in a mausoleum . . . They should title this opera 'Zircos Are a Girl's Best Friend!'"

Whaddaya mean, listen to a little of the opera? After 15 years of not listening? . . . Tell Mr. Bing, night-night, I'm cuttin' out . . .

Yet there were many beauties there — Mrs. Max (Debbie) Kettner in such a tight-fitting all rhinestone dress she couldn't squeeze into her row of seats and had to stay in the bar . . . busy opera star Rosalind Elias with Van Cliburn . . . Patrice Munnell with a cane . . . Roz Russell wearing a Grace Vanderbilt headache band . . . Greer Garson attired in sheer money . . . Faye Emerson with Jack Herlihy in one room . . . and Skitch Henderson, to whom she announced her engagement at another opera opening, in another room with his German bride Ruth Michaels . . . Also Howard Hampton (with James Roller) being the photographers' darling and also exclaiming about Antoinette Stella having "a D flat above a high C." Hope recently suffered a broken wrist, so somebody told her in the future she shouldn't wear so many diamond bracelets on one arm.

One of the top TV execs is really scared now that his guilty secret is out and has become common gossip . . . Concerning the "funny questions" fed to "What's My Line?" people to brighten up the show, that practice started in the Hal Block days and was common knowledge . . . British wit-and-composer Michael Flanders, appearing here in the show "At the Drop of a Hat," says: "I was on the panel of a very successful American show that was exported to England, and was quite surprised at the number of leading questions you were given in advance to enable you or somebody else to make funny remarks."

Frank Sinatra is the first motion picture star ever to be given the right to approve all publicity and all still pictures used in exploiting a film. It happened with "Can-Can," which Frank just finished.

ished. He personally went over the releases which he considered vital. Glamour gals in the past have been given approval of still pictures but not the publicity yes-or-no, which Sinatra had written into his contract at 20th Century-Fox. Frank explained, "The time has come for some people to have that right."

Toots Shor took his 9-year-old son Rory to grammar school to talk to the teacher about Rory's studies. After Toots had mumbled to the teacher for a couple of minutes, the teacher said, "Yes, Mr. Shor, which grade did you want to enter?"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . . CBS staffers are really jittery. Sam Levenson, who was on "Masquerade Party," called to ask from which theater it would originate, and was told: "Sorry, we can't give that information." . . . Pat Wymore wants Errol Flynn's parents to live on his Jamaica estate . . . Deborah Kerr and Peter Viertel set the date: June 11 at Klosters, Switzerland . . . Sarah Churchill got her father's OK to write her memoirs.

Edith Piaf, recuperating from a circulatory ailment, will be back at work in January . . . Paddy Chayefsky's low-budget "Tenth Man" will be all paid off three weeks after the Broadway opening . . . Dick Clark'll call his first book "Your Happiest Years" . . . "Destry Rides Again" will have a London company in April; producer David Merrick wanted Lena Horne for the lead . . . An author, who recently sold several books to H'wood, is bouncing checks around N.Y.C. . . . Att'y Cohn's El Morocco date was Carol Portago (widow of the auto-racing marquis).

Larry Blyden's "Flower Drum Song" replacement'll probably be Jack Soo (who plays a Chinese master of ceremonies in the show) . . . Singer Jimmy Rodgers, touring Australia, bought two racehorses . . . Roy Campanella was offered a supervisory job in Cuban baseball this winter . . . Dan Dailey'll be in Cantinflas' next film, "Pepe" . . . Actor Melvin Douglas dr. joined a collective farm in Israel . . . Nancy French of the Las Vegas Tropicana is a Wilson Girl nominee.

EARL'S PEARLS: Alimony is a case of paying royalties on a show that's already closed.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Taffy Tuttle says she's looking for a man of strong will: "Made out to me, of course."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Someone described a lush: "He always has one drink for the road — and carries a map so he won't run out of roads."

The same guy who doesn't pay attention to the "Keep Off the Grass" signs will adhere strictly to restaurant signs reading: "Tipping Not Permitted." That's earl, brother.

Library Will Open Rare Book Show

Book collectors and persons interested in rare editions and manuscripts will welcome the announcement that starting in November the Welwood Murray Memorial Library will have an exhibition of books.

This exhibition will be accompanied by a discussion, once a month, on books and book collecting, with appropriate examples of fine first editions, Press books, illuminated manuscripts and fine bindings.

Villagers possessing such rare items have volunteered to lend them for exhibition. Others not already contacted are urged to write to the Board of Trustees describing any rare items which they may own. The monthly discussion groups will be held in the evening so that teachers, librarians and students may attend.

The first meeting will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, in the Children's Room of the library with Melba Bennett, trustee of the library, presiding.

ONE OF THE MOST widely-discussed of present-day American authors, Harry Golden figures to do some discussing of his own when he opens the Community Forum Series in the Jewish Community Center next week.

GOLDEN TO START VILLAGE'S FORUM

By ISADORE SINGER

On a quiet street in Charlotte, N.C., stands a sizeable Victorian house, which is the fountainhead of the "Carolina Israelite" and the stronghold of its famous writer, editor and publisher, Harry L. Golden, who will appear as first speaker of the season in the Community Forum Series at the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road, at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday.

The 16-page publication that he issues from time to time is merely a compilation of his reflections on anything under the sun.

YET THESE SAME compilations gathered together in book form under the title, "Only in America," did what few non-fiction books do — became the Number One best seller in America and held on to first place for many months.

This book was followed by "For 2c Plain," which added more laurels to Golden's reputation by joining his first book on the best seller list. He has enjoyed the distinction of having two of his books on that list simultaneously, a rare event in the history of book publishing.

The "Carolina Israelite," or Harry Golden — they are actually one and the same — has grown from an initial circulation of 800 to close to 20,000, because of its unique combination of homespun philosophy, whimsy and erudition, set forth in tightly filled columns and unadorned by photographs. It is as down-to-earth, independent and nostalgic as the man himself.

ROTUND AND bespectacled, scarcely more than five and one-half feet tall and with a laugh that breaks out like a sudden rising gust, Harry — it would be unthinkable after talking with him for five minutes to call him Mr. Golden — has been an institution in Charlotte since his arrival in 1939.

His move to Charlotte proved to be the most spectacularly successful Yankee invasion ever staged in Dixie. For North Carolina and, indeed, the whole South have lavishly returned Golden's affection in kind.

The subscribers of his newsless newspaper include such people as Earl Warren, Adlai Stevenson, William Faulkner and Carl Sandburg.

Salt Production Down

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. salt production dropped slightly in 1958 for the second straight year, the Interior Department reports. Production was estimated at 21,911,000 short tons in 1958 compared with 23,844,000 short tons in 1957 and 24,206,000 in 1956.

A HALLOWEEN FRIGHT
By Patty Corrigan, (10) Desert

One night in October,
I saw a black cat.
I went to pick it here.
But a big cat I did fear.

I ran and jumped and skinned my knee.
The cat he laughed with glee.
That's why on Halloween night
I am afraid to be without a light.
But a big cat I did fear.

By Joanne Ekins (9), 3964 Calle
San Raphael, Palm Springs.
It is Halloween tonight
And the moon is very bright.
You may see, if you try,
Witches flying through the sky.

Then you see a cat on a bat
And a pumpkin on a hat.
The pumpkin is a cute fellow
Because he is so nice and yellow.
THE BIG FRIGHT
By Larry Halstead (9), P.O.
Box 2, Thousand Palms.
Oh witches! Oh witches!
Come flying over the moon
With their cats and brooms and witches

WATCH THE PAPER for Contest winners!
To give the children a big fright,
On Halloween night!

ATTENTION EASTERNERS
REYMER'S LEM-N BLEND is in California. If you are from the East, you know what a tremendous drink Lem-N Blend is back there. We have now brought Lem-N Blend to California, and it has caught on like wild-fire in the Los Angeles area. Why are we telling you this? Because the entire Coachella Valley (including Desert Hot Springs and Palm Springs) is wide open for this soft drink. We need help, help, help, to service this tremendous market on a full time or part time basis. If you are interested in working with us, or know somebody who would be, please call us at HOLLYWOOD 4-1105 and ask for Jim Sayeg, or write-Crossman Company, 7039 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood 28.

59-60 Event Calendar Now In Circulation

Calendar Mailed
To 500 Newspapers,
Magazines in U.S.

General Events Calendars, containing a variety of exciting activities scheduled to take place in Palm Springs during the 1959-60 season, were prepared by McFadden and Eddy Associates on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce and sent to over 500 top newspapers and magazines throughout the United States. It was announced today by Chamber manager Jimmy Cooper.

Among the recipients were editors in the fields of travel, society and sports, as well as syndicated columnists, key personnel in wire services, wirephoto services, newsreels, television and radio stations.

In addition to this General Events Calendar, which is customarily disseminated to national press annually, this year something new has been added. Since Palm Springs is now recognized as the "Winter Golf Capital of the World," a special Golf Events Calendar was also compiled and mailed to approximately 225 sports editors of leading newspapers and magazines across the country.

As recently as 1955, only one, four-page calendar was required to list the Village's activities for the season. This year, the General Events Calendar was comprised of ten pages, augmented by a Golf Events Calendar containing four pages; all of which is a reflection of the ever-increasing activities and overall growth of Palm Springs.

Regulars, Newcomers Return to Sky Ridge

Skyridge

Returning regulars and uninitiated newcomers ushered in a new resort season at Sky Ridge with a potluck dinner party this week. Veteran Sky Riders Tom and Lorena Lalor sparked a round-robin series of reports on summer vacation activities by screening colored slides of Zion and Bryce National Parks.

Henry and Norma Banderob just completed a trip through the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Arizona and are now preparing their trailer home for a long winter residence.

The summer outing of Col. and Mrs. M. A. Sine ranged from Sky Ridge to the salmon fishing grounds of Smith River, Calif., Westlake, Ore., and Puget Sound. Flo Baanes and Nina Filkin took time off from their flower planting to report that they spent an enjoyable summer in Riverside before journeying to San Simeon, Big Sur, Carmel and Monterey.

Harold and Pauline Quast recounted the tale of an early June jaunt to Estero Beach, Mexico, and a trip to Gardena to visit their new granddaughter.

Hi and Avis Ball spent most of their summer at the beach and Maudene Mundell reported that she enjoyed the summer months with her nephew and his wife, Col. and Mrs. D. W. Titus, at Danville, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross D. Harrison later traveled to Washington with her sister, Alma Lee, who came out from Montana. Ross Harrison then joined his wife at Billings, Mont., for a drive back to California.

Ramon Trailer Park

Ramon Trailer Park residents marked a clean sweep in horse-shoe pitching at the Palm Springs Trailer Rally Sunday morning.

Winners, in order of their standings, were Snow Kerr, Richard Lynch, Jack LeMasters, Lee Satterthwaite, Charles Hillhouse and John Dykes.

Ramon Park stockholders Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thomason have sold their interests to Mr. and Mrs. George Brumer, formerly of San Diego. Mrs. Brumer is one of the few women in California to be licensed as a building contractor.

The Brumers formerly owned the Desert Hotel but sold it and took up a new residence at Ramon Park four years ago.

The Thomasons sold their cabana here to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erdhal, who, in turn, sold their trailer to Teresa Renard, of Burbank. Mr. and Mrs. Thomason left Saturday for Bakersfield with the best wishes of park residents.

Zone Change Approved on San Luis Rey

Planner Change
Oked Over Plan
Of San Jose Pair

Following a hearing this week on a petition by Donato Pascali of Palm Springs and F. L. De Napoli of San Jose for a change of zone for their property on the east side of San Luis Rey Drive east of Palm Springs, the Board of Supervisors approved a change, but they approved that recommended by the county planning commission rather than that applied for by the petitioners.

The property has a frontage of 1,281 feet on San Luis Rey with a depth of 330 feet. It extends northerly from Ramon Road.

THE PETITIONERS requested that the 290 by 330 corner of San Luis Rey and Ramon presently zoned R-3 general residential be changed to M-1 light manufacturing. This was changed to C-1 general commercial as recommended by the planning commission.

The remaining 991 feet on San Luis Rey is presently zoned R-1 single family residential. The petitioners requested that 500 feet of this adjoining the 290-foot corner property be zoned C-1 general commercial with the remaining 491 feet R-3 general residential. The entire piece was changed to R-2 multiple family.

THE PROPOSED manufacturing zoning on the corner portion of the property was specifically objected to by Palm Springs Homes, Inc., California Dream Homes Co., and Richfield Investment Company.

Board Denies Setback Variance

Denial of a variance to Gordon Altland of Palm Desert for reduction of rear yard setback from ten feet to two feet six inches on his property at 72-839 Pitahay Street was reported to the Board of Supervisors this week and filed. The planning commission said no hardship was involved.

The variance was requested to permit use of an already completed structure.

Pope Marks Anniversary

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Pope John XXIII yesterday marked his first year in office with a special audience for 200 peasants and churchmen from his home district but no ceremonies.

DEDICATED MEN

It's hard to tell about things sometimes. We like to think that we are dedicated to our work and that all of those associated with us feel the same way—but now we don't know.

A friend of ours who is also a builder (yes, we do have friends who are builders) had a feeling that maybe all the men working for him were not exactly overjoyed with what they were doing so he got one of his bright young men to investigate. Sure enough the first bricklayer interviewed had a beef. "Look Mac—I hate this job. If I didn't have a fat wife and five hungry kids to feed I'd chuck it." This and similar remarks greeted the questioner until at last he ran into a different story. This next guy was a dedicated bricklayer. "You know," he said, "I am not just laying one brick on another—I am building a cathedral where some day, some may come to worship and this will be a better world because of their faith."

Well now, that's pretty heady stuff and believe us our contractor friend was plenty impressed and proud. However, he had to fire the guy because they were not building a cathedral but a Union Oil Station.

Now our guys may not be so dedicated but they sure know what they are building and that is Palm Springs' finest homes for the money. Because they do build such fine homes and put so many features in them (like for instance, heated, filtered P a d d o c k pools, Carrier refrigerated air conditioning, wall-to-wall carpeting, large roomy closets, built-in stoves, ovens, dishwashers, clothes washers and dryers and things like that) and because we price these homes so low and have such easy terms, we naturally sell a lot of homes to a lot of nice people. If you are looking for a home in Palm Springs we are sure these nice people would be delighted to have you join them. May we again invite you to visit us?
